The Glory of the Rose

(Copied.)

THE rose has been known to man from the earliest hours of history. It has been mentioned in story and song in all ages. It is the eternal flower of love, the emblem of sentiment. "All the world loves a lover," said Emerson. And it is true that all the world loves roses, probably for the same reason. Cherished in the palaces and gardens of the rich and mighty, it is, nevertheless, the flower of all classes and stations in life. The fancier may differ in his tastes; the pocketbook may dictate the choice of many; the wealthy gardener may have the most exquisite flowers of every land and clime at his beek and call, but all unite in claiming the rose as the first flower. And this universal love for the rose is unequaled elsewhere in all the things which Nature has given us.

It grows wild in the temperate zone thruout the world. When the pioneers poured down over the Allegheny Mountains and into

It grows wild in the temperate zone thruout the world. When the pioneers poured down over the Allegheny Mountains and into the plains of Kentucky and Ohio, later upon the prairies of Illinois, Iowa, and the West, they found the wild rose everywhere. Full many a prairie home was gladdened and enriched in those troublesome days by the splendor and color of the wild rose. It brought a vision of peace and lofty sentiment to those sturdy souls in their hours of struggle; it gladdened the hearts of the lovers and brightened frontier weddings without number. The first flower that the bride planted in her dooryard, whether in the forests of Kentucky or in the sod huts of Kansas, was the queen of the prairie, the wild rose.

The rose has left an imperishable imprint upon the literature of all times and races. During the days of feudalism and chivalry

The rose has left an imperishable imprint upon the literature or all times and races. During the days of feudalism and chivalry it was the accepted badge of favor. Sturdy knights and mighty warriors battled the one with the other in contests of prowess to win the rose of some fair lady. To have this token from the gentler sex was a higher tribute than any that royalty might bestow. In the period of the Renaissance, when the blight of the Dark Ages was lifting before the dawn of modern literature, we find the rose still the favorite of mankind. When Dante thought of laws and the guestly Reattive he says somets to the rose.

the rose still the favorite of mankind. When Dante thought of love and the queenly Beatrice, he sang sonnets to the rose. To trace the rose in literature would be to produce a compilation of the work of all authors and poets. Never has man or woman achieved fame in letters without writing of the rose. The literature of France, of Spain, of England, of Ireland, of sturdy old Scotland, of Scandinavia, of America, is replete with it. We find it even in the fables of antiquity. Among the ancients it was held sacred to Cupid and Venus, called Eros and Approdite respectively, by the Greeks. They considered it the emblem of joy and love, and at the same time, of prudence.

The Romans placed it over the door when a feast was in progress and whoever passed under it incurred a solemn obligation not and whoever passed under it incurred a solemn obligation not to reveal what was seen or heard. From this custom has sprung the term "sub rosa," meaning "under the rose," as applied to anything revealed in confidence.

Later, it was placed at the entrance to confessional at Rome, as a symbol of secrecy. In poetry, it has ever stood as a symbol of purity and innocence; to all classes it has ever been the emblem of everything beautiful and delightful.

In art, as in literature, we find it going back to the very dawn of the Aryan race. It is seen in the art of the Greeks, the Romans, the Egyptians, the Assyrians. The Etruscan rose is almost as famous as the Etruscan vase. The rose has been distinctly a favorite of the Western world, as distinguished against the Orient.

this trikingly absent in the horticultural affairs of the early Chinese and Japanese.

In history, the rose has played an important part. In the days of Heraldry, it was a badge worn by whole armies. The badge of the House of Lancaster was the rose gules, and the rose ardent of the House of York. Henry VI, king of England, was sur-rounded and supported by the adherents of the House of Lancaster in his claim to the throne. Richard, Duke of York, had a better claim to the throne by descent and his adherents provoked one quarrel after another with the Lancasterians, in the hope of ultimately placing Richard on the throne. The personal emblem of the Duke of York was a white rose, which his followers adopted in order to distinguish friend from foe. The House of Lancaster promptly adopted the red rose as its emblem. From this fact, the struggles between the two families for the throne of England which lasted several years, came to be known as the "War of the Roses." Thus the rose played an important part in at least one war, a war which destroyed the flower of English manhood and eventually made it possible for the French to drive the English off the continent forever.

Roses in the future are going to be better understood by the people at large; they are becoming more and more common in family gardens and the uses to which they may be devoted in addition to their bloom, will bring a fuller realization of the glory and beauty of the rose to every lover of Nature. Too long we have blood under the investigation of the trong well the processing th have labored under the impression that rose culture was not for the masses; that this queen of the florist's art was distinctly a creature of skill and intricate care. Too long our gardens have been bare of the queen of flowers and our vases empty.

The rush of commercialism in the early days of the present industrial age seemed to sweep all sentiment, all love for the leisurely joy of growing things and enriching life and home with flowers, out of our lives. But the advent of universal prosperity, the coming of the thought that of all attainments the home is the most important, the settling down of America to enoble and to enrich herself in the worthier things, has swept back that old desire, that old longing, for the "vine over the door."

And never before has the great middle class been so favored whether here or elsewhere. The modest backlot gardens in many cities outrank those of the aristocracy of yesterday. Many a busy housewife has a larger and better garden than that boasted by her Colonial grandmother.

The natural love for the rose has had a great deal to do with this revival of the interest in horticulture. Hardly has sod been turned before thoughts of roses blooming in the garden come to the garden lover. It assumes expression often before a shrub is planted den lover. It assumes expression of the disadvantages of annual flowers which endure for a season and must be planted again each succeeding spring. It endures from year to year, blooming each season and attaining a varying growth depending upon variety. It blooms the first season, if properly established, and continues to repay the gardener thruout the years. The Teas and Hybrid Teas are, as a general rule, continuous in the blooming habit and one or two of the Hybrid Perpetuals display the same admirable trait. petuals display the same admirable trait.

There is a rose for every climate where people live in any considerable numbers. Wild varieties are found in Lapland and Labrador. Even the delicate teas are successfully grown outdoors in Canada, where thousands of them are to be found in the public parks.

As there is a rose for every climate, so there is a rose for every purpose, susceptible of outdoor cultivation. From the tiny polyanthas to the giant and rugged rugosas and climbing varieties, polyanthas to the giant and rugged rugosas and climbing varieties, there is a wide selection for almost any condition that may be present. Unsightly terraces or bare spots in lawn or park or cemetery may be made a place of beauty with the creeping varieties. In the rose we find all the varieties which climate, nature and skill in man can combine. It is not extraordinary, then, that the rose should have the universal place it holds in the hearts of so many people in all classes and in all climes. It is the universal flower and its appeal in that direction is only indicative of its merits

ROSES FOR OUTDOOR PLANTING

The cultivation of roses is as follows:

The Soil—The soil which best suits the Rose is a deep, unctuous The contraction of 1086 is as 5000ws.

The Soil—The soil which best suits the Rose is a deep, unctuous loam, with free drainage, as Roses do not thrive where there is stagnant moisture. If these conditions are not to be had naturally, they must, as far as possible, be provided. In the first place, if drainage is bad, the soil must be thrown out to a depth of 18 inches and if it is not convenient to use tiles about 5 or 6 inches inches, and, if it is not convenient to use tiles, about 5 or 6 inches of broken bricks or other rough material should be thrown in the bottom, and a layer of turf laid on top, grassy side down. On the top of the turf should be placed a layer of well-decayed farmthe top of the turn should be placed a layer of well-decayed farm-yard manure, then a light layer of soil, and another layer of ma-nure, on top of which should be placed the remainder of the soil, to which, if light and sandy, should be added a liberal supply of well-chopped-up turf, raising the whole of the bed to a height of about 12 inches above the original level of the soil. In case of heavy land, a layer of lime rubble should be added, as this will help to sweeten the soil.

Planting—Should be deferred until the soil is in proper condition to receive the plants, as it is a great mistake to plant in wet soil. Teas and Hybrid Teas should be planted about 18 inches apart and the Hybrid Perpetuals 2 feet apart, keeping all manure ware from direct context, which the protection is the same transfer of the same tra array from direct contact with the roots when planting. Firm the soil well around the plants and give a thorough watering.

-runing—All the short, prematurely ripened wood and all small shoots should be cut clean away, leaving just the strongest shoots, from 4 to 6 inches long. Pruning should be done immediately after the plants are set out, if it has not been previously done. This close pruning does not apply to the Hardy Climbers or Ramblers; these should be shortened back if they have grown beyond their allotted space and thin out the very small shoots.

Protection-Before the ground freezes solid the soil should be Protection—Before the ground freezes solid the soil should be pulled up around the base of the plants, 7 or 8 inches, and the surface of the bed afterward well covered with dried leaves or cornstalks. When so protected, even the most tender varieties of Hybrid Tea Roses are entirely hardy as far north as Winnipeg. This condensed list is the cream of the varieties suitable for American culture today, especially Columbia, which has asserted itself as being the very finest outdoor pink Rose so far produced.

To dig and delve in nice clean dirt Can do a mortal little hurt. To live 'mongst lush and growing things Is like to give the spirit wings.
Who works 'mongst roses soon will find Their fragrance budding in his mind. And minds that sprout with roses free-Well, that's the sort of mind for me.

Fashion changes with the ages. The rose was the queen of flowers to the ancients, just as it is today; but the rose leads all flowers, on account of its adaptability to every decorative purpose.

The Cream of the New Roses

We here offer what is good in the new Hybrid Tea Roses To have what is good you must try these Roses. They are the best that England, France, Ireland, Italy, Holland and America produce.

HYBRID TEA ROSES This is a class of recent creation embodying the delicate shades and peculiar fragrance possessed by the Tea Roses combined with the vigor and more pronounced pink and crimson shades of color previously confined to the Hybrid Perpetual class. In our opinion the Hybrid Teas will supersede all others class. In our opinion the Hybrid Teas will supersede all others because of their superior constitution and marvelously free-flowering qualities. In a sentence it may be said they combine all the better traits of the two classes from which they sprang, altogether a great advantage. Almost all are highly perfumed, an attribute absolutely essential to a perfect Rose. They are everbloomers and hardy in all but the most rigorous climate except where noted; two year plants 20 cents each; three for 30 cents, except where noted.

For general planting, more especially in open ground, this class excels all others. One year-old plants, such as we send by mail bloom the first and each succeeding year from early spring until severe frosts. Two-year-old plants, of course, yield a greater profusion of flowers, owing to their size. The flowers are noted for their exquisite coloring, and delightful fragrance; hardy everywhere in open ground with protection of litter, leaves, evergreen boughs or similar materials. Plant liberally of one-year-old Roses, the harvest of bloom they give the first year compensates for the trifling outlay. Anyone can succeed with them.

We bought the entire stock of this Rose, paying $1,000 for two plants, this being by far the highest recorded price ever paid for any Rose. sense weak, as the buds are held uprignt; has a long slender pointed bud of brilliant deep golden-yellow, and a striking peculiarity of this Rose was that each day of the show this goldenyellow color became deeper yellow and more intense, unlike all other yellow Roses with which we are familiar, as invariably the tendency after being cut is to get lighter in color. This Rose at tendency after being cut is to get lighter in color. This Rose at no stage of its development shows this lighter color as does Sun-burst and other of the yellow Roses, but is always an even, deep intense golden-yellow.

Beautiful House Ferns

There are no plants grown that are more desirable for the house than the following fine decorative Ferns. They are easily grown free from insects and disease and thrive well in the ordinary temperature of the living room. See that the plants have plenty of drainage and are kept well watered; never let dry out for any length of time. Every one of these Nephrolepis Ferns is entirely distinct in every way. That we are headquarters for Ferns is evidenced by the choice assortment that we offer. No other firm offers so many distinct and choice varieties. Try us for Ferns.

The "Teddy Junior" Fern

Nephrolepis Teddy Junior.

"Teddy Junior," the Fern for every household. This grand Fern was introduced recently by G. & R. The fronds are broad and beautifully tapered from base to tip; they droop just enough and beautifully tapered from base to tip; they droop just enough to make a shapely, graceful plant, permitting it to finish with a fine full center and perfect symmetrical spread. The pinnae are distinctly undulated, giving the fronds an attractive wavy appearance, which adds materially to their charming decorative effect. "Teddy Junior" will produce about four times more fronds than any other Fern ever introduced, finishing with fifty to sixty fronds in a four-inch pot. Fine young plants, 25 cents each, three for 65 cents, twelve for $2.50. Strong plants, 75c.

The "Roosevelt" Fern

Nephrolepis Roosevelt

It is our good fortune and great pleasure to offer this wonderful new Fern, having introduced it in 1910. In this short time it stands second in popularity of all the Ferns, and will soon be more popular than even the old favorite Boston Fern. In general characteristics it resembles the world-famous Boston Fern, but it will sweep that Fern from the boards for two reasons; it produces many more fronds than the Boston, thus making a bushier, handsomer plant; then the pinnae are beautifully undulated, giving the "Roosevelt" a pronounced wavy effect seen in no other Fern; as the plant ages this effect becomes quite distinct. A charming and most notable variety. Fine young plants, 25 cents each, three for 65 cents, twelve for $2.50. Strong plants, 75c.

New Fern "Liberty"

This is our own production. In the past we have sent out Baby's Breath, Teddy Junior and Roosevelt, the three greatest Ferns today, acknowledged so by all plantsmen and flower lovers, and now we add another one to the galaxy, "Liberty," no doubt the best of them. All the fronds have finely divided pinnae that give them a very beautiful appearance, while the whole plant is overlaid with a bluish cast that makes of it a very striking object. Wonderfully beautiful, different from all other ferns. First time offered. Fine young plants, 35 cents each, three for 95 cents, twelve for $3.70; strong plants, $1.00 each. Be sure and try this beautiful Fern.

Beautiful House Ferns—Concluded

New Dwarf "Boston"

Nephrolepis.

This new variety produces about twice as many fronds as the old Boston type. It is much more compact, thus making a bushier plant and one that can be used in any decorative plan desired; equally useful in porch boxes or baskets. The best of type. Fine young plants, 50 cents each, three for $1.40, twelve for $5.50; strong plants, $1.00.

The "Big Four" Fern

Nephrolepis Splendida.

Mephrolepis Splendida.

This the most wonderful Fern of them all; it originated with G. & R., and is now offered for the first time. It combines the good qualities of the four most popular sorts. It has the grace of a "Boston," the wavy effect of a "Roosevelt", the fluffly effect of an "Ostrich Plume," and the uniqueness of a "Fish Tail." Some fronds will be straight "Boston," others will be true "Roosevelt," in others the ends of the pinnae will be the feathery "Ostrich Plume, while in others the ends of the pinnae will be the genuine "Fish Tail." Then again some fronds will have in a marked degree all of these desirable traits, forming a combination without parallel among Ferns. It well deserves the name of "Big Four Fern." Every one who sees it goes "daffy" about it. This is without question the most splendid of all the Nephrolepis. Be sure and try it. Fine young plants, 25 cents each, three for 65 cents, twelve for $2.50; strong plants, 75 cents.

The "Wannamaker Fern"

Nephrolepis John Wannamaker.

A new Fern of wonderful beauty. Long, narrow, gracefully drooping fronds. It is not so compact as Scholzeli, and, therefore, is a very airy and graceful Fern, and very durable in the house. A rapid grower; quite distinct from other Ferns. Fine young plants, 30 cents each, three for 80 cents, twelve for $3.10; strong plants, 75 cents.

The "Ostrich Plume Fern"

Nephrolepis Whitmanii.

A great Fern. In fact, it is a plant that appeals to everyone, and on that account will prove a much more valuable and profitable plant than other Ferns of this class. Everyone who has seen it is charmed with it. As someone has expressed it: "There is nothing like the Ostrich Plume Fern in cultivation." In decorative effect it so far out distances the original variety that there is positively no comparison to be made. We consider it the most valuable no so not out ensures the original variety that there is positively no comparison to be made. We consider it the most valuable novelty that has been introduced in many, many years. It has taken gold medals wherever shown. Fine young plants, 35 cents each, three-for 95 cents, twelve for $3.70; strong plants, 85 cents.

The "Baby's Breath Fern"

Nephrolepis Goodii.

This Fern is splendid to use for Fern Dish Planting. It has the finest foliage of all the Ferns. It is so delicate that a lady on seeing it exclaimed, "Call it the Baby's Breath Fern, as it is so dainty in it exclaimed, "Call it the Baby's Breath Fern, as it is so dainty in texture that a baby's breath would set its fluffy foliage in motion." The fronds are very fine and filmy, on which account it has been called by some the Lace Fern. It is an improved variety, and the best of its type. Nothing is daintier or more exquisite than well grown specimens in any size. Fine young plants, 50 cents each, three for $1.40, twelve for $5.50; strong plants, $1.00.

The "Newport Fern"

Nephrolepis Scotti.

Of much dwarfer and bushier growth than the Boston Fern. The fronds droop gracefully, and are not as long and heavy as the Boston. It is a rapid grower, and to see it in all stages of growth from a runner in the bench to a 14-inch pot specimen will convince you that it will be in great demand as a house Fern. This has always been a favorite variety. Fine young plants, 30 cents each, three for 80 cents, twelve for $3.10: strong plants, 75c.

The "Parlor Fern"

Nephrolepis Whitmanii Compacta.

This is a condensed form of the "Ostrich Plume" Fern, with valuable characteristics added which are not evident in the parent, the pinnae subdividing making miniature fronds which are superimposed on the main fronds, looking as if two or more were condensed into one. Graceful beyond description. Fine young plants, 35 cents each, three for 95 cents, twelve for $3.70: strong plants, 75 cents.

The "Philadelphia Lace Fern"

Nephrolepis Elegantissima.

The small size pinnae, or leaflets, are subdivided into perfect miniature fronds; the side pinnae stand at right angles to the midrib of the fronds, on edge instead of flat, giving both sides of the main frond the same beautiful appearance. It is impossible to conceive of the beauty and grace of this wonderful Fern from the description. Fine young plants, 35 cents each, three for 95 cents, twelve for $3.70; strong plants, 75 cents.

The "Old Original Sword Fern"

Nephrolepis Exaltata.

This is the "old original Sword Fern," the "daddy" of them all, the one plant from which all the Nephrolepis we offer sprang. It is entirely different from any of its progeny, having narrow fronds that are long and of very erect growth. For this reason it is more largely used as a centerpiece in vases than any of its descendants. Fine young plants, 25 cents each, three for 65 cents, twelve for $2.50: strong plants, 75 cents.

The "Crested Fern"

Nephrolepis Scholzeli

The fronds are crested and stand erect, with a graceful arch, forming a plant of ideal shape, and they never break down, giving forming a plant of ideal snape, and they never break down, giving the plant a ragged appearance, as is so often the case with other plumed ferns; furthermore, the loose, elegant arrangement of the fronds, allowing a free circulation of air through the foliage, prevents the center of even the largest specimen from becoming defective or yellow. Fine young plants, 25 cents each, three for 65 cents, twelve for $2.50; strong plants 50 cents.

The "Boston Fern"

Nephrolepis Bostoniensis.

In the vicinity of Boston, no other plant is so extensively used as this graceful Nephrolepis, which differs from the ordinary Sword Fern in having much longer fronds, which frequently attain a length of six feet. These arch and droop over very gracefully, on account of which it is frequently called the Fountain Fern. This drooping habit makes it an excellent plant to grow as a single specimen on a table or pedestal. This Fern should not be compared with the Ostrich Plume Fern, as they are of an entirely different growth. Fine young plants, 25 cents each, three for 65 cents, twelve for $2.50; strong plants, 75 cents.

The "Fluffy Ruffles Fern"

Nephrolepis Superbissima.

This new Fern is quite different from all other Ferns. Its dis-tinguishing characteristics are its dark green foliage, darker than tinguishing characteristics are its dark green foliage, darker than any other Fern, its dense growth, much more compact, and its irregular shaped fronds, which give it the name of "Fluffy Ruffles Fern." The fronds are very heavily imbricated, the pinnae overlapping, and so formed as to resemble miniature Ferns, giving it the appearance of a Fern within a Fern. The plant is very sturdy in its habit. Fine young plants, 75 cents each, three for $2.15, twelve for $8.10. No large size to offer.

Fern Norwood

A new type of the Ostrich Plume family. The frond is very compact and the pinnae are finely serrated, giving it the appearance of a strong feather plume. Fine young plants, 50 cents each, three for $1.40, twelve for $5.50; strong plants, $1.00

CULTURAL DIRECTIONS FOR PELARGONIUMS

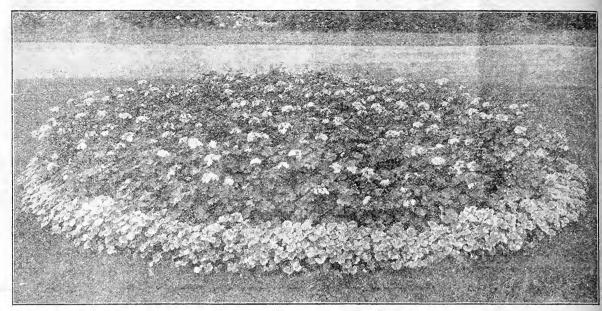

No class of plants are more showy during their blooming season than the pelargoniums, and the gorgeous beauty of the clusters of their vari-colored bloom will well repay extra care expended in their culture.

The greatest success will be attained by securing and starting your plants in the fall and winter, potting in soil well enriched with well-rotted manure, repotting in larger pots as often as the growth of the plant demands it. This will give you a fine large plant covered with bloom by the Easter period.

During the hot summer months, plunge the pot level with the earth in a partially shaded place and water rather sparingly as this is their season of rest.

is their season of rest. About September first carefully remove most of the old soil from around the plant, repotting in fresh soil, and start into active growth. Plants thus cared for will often carry as many as 50 to 100 clusters of bloom at the beginning of their second blooming season. Dipping or spraying with a strong tobacco tea will rid them of any insect pests that may trouble them.

Obtaining several first-class certificates in Holland, this Dahlia is destined to become one of the most popular varieties ever introduced. 75 cents each; three for $2.15; twelve for $8.50.

Century Dahlias

This is an entirely new race of Single Dahlias. We consider today that the new Century Dahlias occupy first place where beauty of coloring and artistic effect is desired. Owing to their immense size, long stems, graceful carriage, combined with their purity of color, or the blendings of colors, shades and tints, they entirely outclass all other Dahlias for cut flowers. Keep each variety when cut in a separate vase.

Cultivation of Dahlias

Dahlias are easily grown, requiring no special soil, or treatment, to bring them to perfection. They love an open sunny location, but succeed in partial shade. Prepare the soil thoroughly by digging 12 to 18 inches deep, possibly in the fall and then again in the spring, before planting.

If the soil is poor, work in some well-rotted stable manure, or artificial fertilizer, but don't overdo this.

Dig the holes 3 feet apart, and about 6 inches deep; drive a stout stake in each hole, and lay the tuber down flat, with the eye to the stake, and cover with two to three inches of fine soil, leaving the hole to be filled after the plant comes up.

Plant any time between April 1st and June 15th.

When the plants have made their third set of leaves, cut out the top, to make them branch.

The most important thing from now on is hoeing and cultivating the soil, until the buds appear; then give the beds a good mulching of manure, to keep the ground moist; and water the plants thoroughly once or twice a week.

If red spider or thrips appears, spray with a nicotine solution.

To have large blooms, it is absolutely necessary to disbud; that means, to break off all the side shoots on each stem, above the first or second set of leaves, leaving the sprouts near the base of each stem, so as to insure a new crop of blooms. Dahlias will continue to bloom, until the frost kills the tops; the tubers are dug and stored in a dry cellar or basement, cover them with dry sand, soil or sawdust, to keep from shriveling. Divide the tubers in the spring after the eyes show plainly, being careful. that each tuber has an eye. Cover them again and keep dry until planted.

GLADIOLI (SWORD LILY)

LADIOLI are among the most popular of all garden flowers. Each year the size, color, and beauty of these wonderful flowers are being improved upon. They are very easy to grow and will do well in almost any soil under any condition. If planted in the richest place of your garden and given plenty of sun and moisture they will, however, repay you with extra-large and gorgeous colors. To obtain a continuation of blooms during the greatest part of the season, it is advisable to plant at intervals of ten days, from the

To obtain a continuation of blooms during the greatest part of the season, it is advisable to plant at intervals of ten days, from the last week in April until the middle of June.

Some varieties will bloom in seventy-five to eighty days from the date of planting, but most sorts require eighty-five to ninety days. Plant the bulbs about 5 or 6 inches deep and from 3 to 4 inches apart.

In October, when the foliage has turned yellow, dig the bulbs, cut the stems off within an inch of the bulbs, and dry them thoroughly. Then remove the old roots and store the bulbs in a cool, dry place where frost cannot reach them.

Their easy culture appeals to all, and the freedom from disease and insect pests is another great asset. They associate so well with all garden flowers, but above all are the decorative possibilities both as a cut flower subject and also in the garden. The collection we here offer is unsurpossed and will be a source of great delight to all who plant them. The flowers last a long time when cut. Do not be stingy in planting Gladioli, but plant by the dozen, or even by the hundred. Varieties marked with an asterisk (*) are particularly fine for forcing The collection we offer embraces the introductions of such noted hybridizers as Betscher, Childs, Diener, Kunderd and others. It includes the best of the new ruffled varieties as well as the best of the new Primulinus group.

TENDER BULBS-Concluded

GLADIOLI—Concluded

Try our Mixed Primulinus Hybrids. These are very popular, and they deserve every word of praise they get. They are graceful, easy to grow, moderate in price, artistic in color. Nasturtium shades predominate. They are the last word in Gladioli for dainty decoration.

Mixed Primulinus Hybrids

These hybrids gained by crossing the species Primulinus with the larger varieties of the Gandavensis type; have retained all the daintiness and graceful form of their Primulinus parent, even to the "hood" formed by the drooping of the upper petal, and have an added beauty of exquisite coloring, from the softest primrose to a beautiful rose. Each, 6c; dozen, 60c; hundred, $4.50.

Gladioli in Mixture

Persons who do not plant mixtures—no matter how many of the named kinds they plant—will miss much of the pleasure of this grand flower. In color every magnificent and gorgeous combination conceivable is represented. The richest of self-colors, blotched, etc.; finest white and pastels of every tint and color. Each, 6c; dozen, 60c; hundred, $4.50; thousand, $40.00.

Lily of the Valley

The modest bell-shaped flowers of the purest white are highly prized for cutting purposes, and for flowering in pots in winter they are exceedingly well adapted. Beautiful and most interesting ornamental designs for the parlor or conservatory may be produced by planting Lily crowns in Crocus pots or in pyramidal pots made especially for this purpose and pierced with holes. They will last several weeks in beauty. By taking them in at intervals a succession of different designs may be kept up all winter. They are also forced in immense quantities by florists, but they are the most charming when grown in large patches in partially shaded localities around the lawn near the borders of streams, lakes, etc., being perfectly hardy. Price, 4½ cents each; 45 cents per dozen, 25 for 75 cents.

Milk and Wine Lily

(Crinum Fimbriatum.) "I must tell you that Milk and Wine Lily has done famous work. It has developed nine fine blooms, and there are two unopened buds. We, therefore, gave it a free ride last Wednesday to our chapel services. It was admired by everybody. There were Bostonians and people from various towns to admire and enjoy it."—Mrs. E. Adams, Mass. A grand sort. The most beautiful of the Crinums. Its bulbs grow large, and its strong-growing foliage is erect and sword-shaped; flowers in umbels, very large and showy, three to four inches in diameter, striped with white and carmine and very fragrant. Fine bulbs. 50 cents each, three for $1.40, twelve for $5.50.

Spider Lily

This is one of the prettiest and daintiest of all Lilies. It is pure white with bands of a greenish color through the flower; this green and the white make a charming combination that everyone admires. The filaments and stamens of this choice Lily resemble a huge spider; not repulsive, but the most beautiful and delicate o all lilies. 40 cents each, three for $1.10, twelve for $4.30.

HARDY PERENNIALS FOR THE BORDER

ACHILLEA, THE PEARL—Pure white flowers in immense clusters; fine for cemetery planting. Height two feet. 15 cents each, three for 35 cents, tweive for $1.30.

AQUILEGIA COLUMBINE—Assorted colors. Height two feet. 15 cents each, three for 35 cents, twelve for $1.30.

COREOPSIS LANCEOLATA GRANDIFLORA—Golden-yellow, invaluable for cutting. Height three feet. 15 centseach, three for 35 cents, twelve for $1.30.

CRIMSON KING (Old Fashioned Hardy Carnation)—This is the variety so much sought after owing to its hardiness and everblooming quality. Foliage dark olivegreen, rather grassy looking, throwing up stout stems, producing the rich crimson bloom in great profusion. Individual bloom good size, and delightfully clove scented. So scarce has this variety become that we will not supply more than three to any customer. We offer large, field grown plants for fall planting. 80 cents each, three for $2.20, twelve for $8.70.

DAISIES, BURBANK'S SHASTA - The Shasta Daisy is one of the most marvelous productions in the flower line that has ever been brought to the notice of floriculturists. It is the first of a new type which has been obtained by hybridization and rigid selection through a series of years. Its first qualification is extreme hardiness. Second, it is perennial, blooming better and more abundantly each season. particular as to soil. Fourth, it blooms for several months. Fifth, the flowers are extremely large and graceful, averaging about four inches in diameter, with petals of the purest glistening whiteness, which are borne on single, long, stiff, wiry stems. Sixth, the blooms, when cut remain perfectly fresh and in good condition for two weeks or more. No other flower can compare with it in usefulness. We have two kinds of Shasta Daisies, KING EDWARD and ALASKA. Height two and one-half feet. 20 cents each, three for 50 cents, twelve for $1.90.

Delphinium or Larkspur

Indispensable to the herbaceous garden, their long, showy spikes of flowers persist from June till frost and furnish the most satisfactory blues to any color scheme. Height two to three feet.

DELPHINIUM BELLA DONNA—Pure sky-blue, white, bee; fine for cutting. 30c., each, three for 80c., twelve for $3.10.

DELPHINIUM BELLAMOSA—A dark blue of the type of Belladonna with the color of the old Formosum variety, but not fiable to mildew like the latter and of stronger growth. 30 cents each, three for 80 cents, twelve for $3.10.

piacentra spectabilis (Bleeding Heart)—These pretty spring bloomers, with their graceful, drooping sprays of heart-shaped pink flowers, are very ornamental and bloom freely early in the season. The plants, being hardy, increase in size and bloom from year to year. Finely cut ornamental foliage, growing about fitteen inches high, and producing showy pink flowers. 50 cents each, three for $1.40, twelve for $5.50.

DIGITALIS (Foxglove)—Gloxinia-like flowers; fine assorted colors. 15 cents each, three for 35 cents, twelve for $1.30.

BUSH DUSTY MILLER (Senecio Argenteus)—Silvery foliage. Fine for bedding; vases; hanging baskets and pots; also extensively used for margin. 15 cents each, three for 35 cents, twelve for $1.30.

LIBERTY IRIS "The Fleur de Lis of France"

Long ago, so the story goes, a field of purple flowers swayed in the warm breezes that swept across the little "Plowery Kingdom" Japan. Close by the river's edge the blossoms danced as they saw their pretty reflections in the water and they were as gay as the little maids who frolicked along the paths. The blossoms were to be gathered for their lord's house, a banquet was to be given and beauty must be everywhere.

Suddenly a cold wind swept across the field, the warm sunbeams fied and the wee maids, looking affrightedly about them, saw a huge, black cloud spreading across the sky. And then came the rain, sheets of it, beating the flowers to the ground as the maids rushed to the shelter of a tea house.

When the sun came once more, chasing away the rain, what a sight met the eyes of the frightened girls as they peered timidly out. The field of flowers was flattened out before them, the poor purple blossoms draggled and torn.

But, as they gazed, a rainbow arched the sky, its end seeming to rest in the iris-field. Here and there, the bright arch touched the flowers and, as the girls watched in wonder, the field of flowers once more waved in the breeze, but the flowers were no longer only purple. Creamy-white were they and palest lavender, golden-yellow, blue, mauve, wherever the rainbow had touched, there was a flower the color of the rainbow. And so, to this day, this flower is known as "The Goddess of the Rainbow."

Today no longer are iris to be found only in Japan. The simplest, smallest garden in America may possess them. They grow so freely, they respond to care so readily, that, whether you own a vast estate or a suburban plot you too, may find the end of the rainbow in your Iris bed.

No other flower has so many combinations of color, especially of No other flower has so many combinations of color, especially of the delicate and unusual shades, and the name, the rainbow flower, is most fitting. They are absolutely hardy, as beautiful in form, texture and coloring as any Orchid, and many are delightfully fragrant. They are not particular as to soil, will grow where anything will, but do better in well drained locations. There is nothing prettier than this Liberty Iris, blooming from May 10th to June 10th. The colors are gorgeous and they completely hide the plant. Be sure and plant some Liberty Iris.

HARDY PERENNIAL PHLOX

This is one of the most easily grown hardy perennials, and the large number of beautiful varieties now offered make it especially desirable. These noble flowers are not only beautiful as individuals, but the cheerful appearance of our gardens during the summer and autumn months is much indebted to them. They succeed in any position or soil, and can be used to advantage either as single specimens in the mixed border or as large clumps or beds on the lawn. To produce the best results, however, they should have a rich, deep and rather moist soil, and let each clump have a space of from two to three feet in which to develop. They will continue to thrive for several years with little attention, as is attested by the fine clumps about old homesteads. The ease with which they are cultivated; their entire hardiness and the extended time of blooming, combined with the varied and beautiful coloring, make them especially valuable for garden planting. The Perennial Phlox usually commence to bloom in early summer, and are brilliant with color until after several frosts have come. They are admirably adapted for cemetery planting, also for a low hedge or screen to hide old fences and unsightly objects.

DECIDUOUS SHRUBS

Whether planted individually or collectively Shrubs are an important feature in the adornment of any yard. The rich summer foliage plays a greater part in landscape effect than is often realized. Would advise planting liberally of Shrubs.

HIBISCUS SYRIACUS Althea or Rose of Sharon

Also known as the Hollyhock shrub, belongs to the Mallow family. These are the most beautiful shrubs we have in our collection. The flowers are of large size, very double and full of various brilliant and striking colors. They bloom freely during August and September, when scarcely any other shrub is in bloom. We offer nine of the very choicest varieties as follows:

ANEMONEFLORA-Largest of all Althea bloom; double wine-

The Ever-Blooming Butterfly Bush

Buddleya Variabilis Magnifica (Butterfly Bush)

It was a matter of some thought before this highly desirable It was a matter of some thought before this highly desirable plant was finally christened with the common English name by which it goes. Several years ago there were imported from Europe some plant novelties and this one was among them. We observed it carefully for a season and were charmed with its beauty, ease of culture and free flowering habit. The name Butterfly Bush was applied to it because it seems to attract butterflies in large numbers. Particularly we notice that it is not alone the common little bers. Particularly we notice that it is not alone the common lttle yellow species of butterfly, but also the large and gorgeously colored butterflies that swarm about it as though vieing with it in brilliancy of color. This shrub from a young plant set out either in the spring or fall, will mature to full size the first summer, producing a handsome bush, which the first year often maintains a height of four feet. It produces long, graceful stems, which terminate in tapering panicles of beautiful lilac-colored flowers that are of miniature size and borne by the hundreds and a flower head which is fre-

The year after planting, it generally commences to flower in June and continues each season until severe frosts nip it. The foliage and blooms are exceedingly fine. The frosts nip it. The foliage and blooms are exceedingly fine. The shrub is rather semi-herbaceous, by which we mean in some latitudes it will die down to the ground and while perfectly hardy, we recommend covering the roots with manure, leaves or other suitable materials as winter approaches, as this will produce a heavy growth the following season. This shrub is very desirable as an individual specimen in the lawn and garden, or placed promiscously in the shrubbery border. Fine plants, 25 cents each, three for 50 cents, twelve for $1.90; strong plants, 60 cents each.

Buxus

(Ornamental Box.)

(Sempervirens)—Useful for edging and bordering walks, etc. A handsome shrub with deep green foliage. The Most Valuable Hardy Shrub Ever Introduced.
Plant in the Fall.

This is the great new hardy shrub that has come to gladden our yards and gardens. We place it first and foremost of all shrubs. It makes a perfectly round, symmetrical bush that is covered from June to August with handsome, large, pure white flowers. Be sure and plant this new Hardy shrub—it will please you greatly. Young plants, 25 cents each; three for 65 cents; twelve for $2.50. Strong two-year plants, 50 cents each.

Bush Honeysuckle

HONEYSUCKLE, TARTARIAN (Rosea)—The favorite old fashioned Bush Honeysuckle with slender upright branches Pink flowers. 50 cents each, three for $1.40, twelve for $5.50-

HONEYSUCKLE, TARTARIAN (Alba)—A white flowering form of the above. 50 cents each, three for $1.40, 12 for $5.50.

Hydrangea Paniculata Grandiflora

A great favorite, and there is nothing finer or more showy, whether for planting in large masses in parks or for single plants on the smallest lawns. Blooms profusely from July until frost, in immense white panicles, tinted with pink and then with brown in the fully matured flower. The plant should be cut back each spring fully one-half of the past season's growth, as the flowers are much finer if the plant is treated in this manner. The flowers are much finer and larger if grown in a good, rich soil, but the plant is so hardy and so easily grown that success is almost certain in any kind of soil and in any situation. Strong flowering plants, for immediate effect, two years old, 50 cents each; three for $1.40; twelve for $5.50.

SPLENDID Hardy Everywhere PEONIES

"ARISTOCRAT OF FLOWERS"

HE wonderful improvements made during recent years in these old-fashioned hardy plants have brought them into renewed popularity. The gorgeous flowers, which rival the finest Roses in size, form and color, are produced in great abundance. After once being planted they require little care and attention, thrive anywhere, and are absolutely hardy even in the coldest climates; each year after planting they grow into greater value, producing more and more flowers. They are not troubled with insect pests. Try some of our fine Peonies, and see what grand flowers they are. Get it out of your head that there are only Red, White and Pink Peonies, to illustrate at flowering time. People who visit our field will say, "I have Pink and White Peonies. I desire only Red ones," but when they are shown the Pink and White, they invariably exclaim, "How grand, I have none like them." There is as much difference in Peonies as there is in Roses.

We have found that divisions do not give the customer satisfaction; they have to wait too long for the plant to become established.

For this reason we are not offering any Peony this year under a one-year size.

The one-year plant is a plant divided and reset a year before. We do not advise our customers to divide any of these one-year roots if they want bloom the first year. We find that Peonies should not be divided more than once in three years.

The Logical Time to Order Peonies

Is when you are "chumming" with them in your own or friends' garden. Memory is too elusive a thing to be trusted Entrust your wishes to us; write us freely any time concerning Peonies. The full benefit of a quarter century's experience with this wonderful flower is yours to command.

Make Our Booklet Your Guide

"Peonies for Pleasure" is not a catalog but a beautiful booklet free to all who love Peonies or want to. It will appeal as much to the hobbyist as it will help the beginner. Our admiration for the Peony is akin to religion, and you'll find every word in our Peony Bible to be true.

SPECIAL LIST OF PEONIES

To those who do not care for the nomenclature of the Peony, we have made up this list, and here offer them as an aid to making selections. Patrons will find these varieties embrace a wide range of color and form, and are exceptionally meritorious.

This is our special storage lot dug this fall for spring planting. You can plant Peonies up until March 1, after that time we would suggest you wait until next fall. If in need of other varieties write for our book "Peonies for Pleasure."

All orders for other varieties would be filed until next September as we never dig Peonies after December 1st.

For a few customers who could not plant their Peonies during the fall season, we are carrying the following varieties in storage and will fill orders for Spring as long as this supply lasts. You can plant these up until March 1st, but not after that time. All orders received after March 1st for Peonies will be filed for Sept. 1925 delivery.

79—EDULIS SUPERBA (Lemon, 1824.) Crown type; Each very early. This might well be called the Decoration Day Peony, for it has never failed to be in full bloom for May 30th. Our field of thirty thousand plants is a sight never to be forgotten when seen on that date. A most beautiful bright clear mauve-pink with silvery reflex that under good culture flower of perfect symmetrical form. The color is delicate silvery-rose with lively pink center; petals tipped creamy-white with an occasional crimson fleck. In many localities grown for cut flowers. Has the true June rose fragrance. It is a fact that Lady Leonora Bramwell will remain in better shape longer when cut and placed in cold storage than any other Peony. It will keep in this manner for two months.

19-MADAME CALOT (Miellez, 1856.) PAPAME CALOT (Miellez, 1856.) Rose type, early. Large, convex bloom. Hydrangea-pink, center shaded slightly darker with a somewhat sulphur-tint in the collar. This Peony has three distinctive qualities over all other varieties. First, it blooms any and every year, never failing; second, it produces more flowers than any Peony ever introduced; third, it is the most fragrant of all Peonies, the perfume being delicious. In the above three points Madame Calot stands pre-eminent. Then 39—MARECHAL VALLIANT—(Calot, 1867.) Rose-type; late. Immense globes of light red, with shades of mauve. At Chicago flower show in June, 1905, it won the first prize for best red. It was then sailing under the name of Grandiflora Rubra. About as big a red Peony as is grown.

61—NE PLUS ULTRA— (Miellez, 1856.) Rose type; early midseason. This variety, when well established, is an extremely showy and pretty flower. Color light violet-rose with silvery reflex, central petals overlaid with salmon-pink. A vigorous strong growing and very desirable Peony.

257—UMBELLATA ROSEA—(Dessert. 1895.) Rose type; very early. A variety found by M. Dessert in M. Mechin's collection without name and christened Sarah Bernhardt until later he found the true name. Large, informal flower; guards violet-rose shading to an amber-white center. Very strong, upright grower and free bloomer. upright grower and free bloomer.....

late midseason. This is the famous Crown of Gold.
Immense, very full, imbricated ball-shaped bloom.
Solid and compactly built from edge to center.
Color snow-white reflecting golden-yellow stamens that show through the petals when looking at the flower from the side. These stamens light up the whole flower with a glow that is simply indescriba-ble and which suggests the name "Crown of Gold." ble and which suggests the name "Crown of Gold." Delicate carmine pencilings on edges of a few central petals. Incomparably lovely and one of the very choicest and best Peonies in cultivation. An enthusiast on seeing this variety blooming in our fields exclaimed, "Why, Crown of Gold is Festiva Maxima dressed up in her wedding clothes." It is our opinion the attainment of perfection in the Peony. One grower says, "I believe I could detect Couronne d'Or by its white water lily fragrance anywhere".

FELIX CROUSSE—(Crousse, 1881.) Rose type; late midseason. All Peony enthusiasts are familiar with the fact that it is difficult to get a red Peony that is a self color; that is to say, a full, rich, even shade of red without being suffused with violet, purple or crimson shades. Felix Crousse fills the bill.

30—FESTIVA MAXIMA—(Miellez, 1851.) Rose type; early. This is not only the finest white in existence, but many regard it as the queen of all the Peonies. Mr. Harrison says: "This flower has reached the ultimate beyond which we cannot go. Here at the door stands Festiva Maxima, white as the soul of the Madonna, with now and then a blood drop, as

114—AGIDA — (Origin unknown.) Semi-double type midseason. If the color of this Peony was not so bright and attractive we would have discarded it long ago. A grand bright showy red in contradistinction to the purplish-crimsons that are so prevalent among red Peonies. It might well be called a scarlet color. Very bright and showy; free bloomer		but one of the best and very scarce. The Spring- field florists visited our Peony fields in June, 1912, and everyone of them without exception picked Model of Perfection as the handsomest flower in the field. John M. On young, vigorous plants we have had flowers eight and nine inches through. In fact they are so large and handsome that but few can realize they are Peony blooms on first seeing them. This is probably the most etherally beautiful of all Peonies; inexpressibly grand. Not a new Peony, but scarce and rare. Quite a number of visitors to our field fairly rave over the great beauty of this flower. 166—MADEMOISELLE DESBUISSONS— (Crousse	1.00	comprises some twenty thousand plants of this grand Peony. Very large, full imbricated bloom; guard petals salmon-flesh, center of bloom very full and perfectly formed; color delicate lilac plenteously sprinkled with minute dots of deeper lilac. A row or even a single plant of this Peony is conspicuous among the reds across a field for its brilliant, dark maroon coloring. Simply dazzling; nothing finer in all dark red varieties. It's a race between Dr. Boisduval and Felix Crousse as to which is the better Peony, although they in no way conflict, Dr. Boisduval being much darker than Felix Crousse. Dessert, in his manuscript on the Peony, says: "Doctor Boisduval (Guerin) is like Delachei." If this is true, then Dr. Boisduval claims precedence, it being sent out in 1850, while Delachei was not disseminated until 1856		36—PRESIDENT TAFT—(Blaauw, 1909.) Rose type; midseason. Originated on a private estate in France, bought and taken to Holland and given the Dutch name "Frankryh," which, being interpreted, is "La France," but before being disseminated or any of it sold, the name was changed to President Taft as a compliment to their American customers, and also for the further reason, no doubt, of aiding in the sale of the variety. Mr. Ward Welsh, in charge of our Peony fields, says: "President Taft combines so many of the good qualities necessary to a first class Peony, and combines these qualities in such superlative degree that I have no hesitancy in saying this variety stands at the head of all Peonies. Very double and full, borne in immense clusters. Color pure white overlaid with a flush of delicate bridesmaid-pink tinged yellow at the base of the petals. In addition to its other charms it is surpassingly fragrant, which places it in the front ranks of desirable Peonies, easily admitting it to the society of the "Best Forty." A truly regal flower and should never be omitted from any collection, large or small. Easily scores the isy points of excellence.		A vigorous, strong grower, a profuse bloomer, every shoot being crowned by a big bloom. The flower is really of enormous size; there may be Peony flowers as large, but none larger. The color is a delicate Hydrangea-pink, completely enveloped in a halo of angelic white. The fragrance is delicious." It is certainly a glorious, gorgeous flower, very large and double. The Wonderful Japanese Kudzu Vine (Jack and the Bean Stalk Vine.)

(Jack and the Bean Stalk Vine.)

This is the most rapid-growing vine that anyone knows of. By measurement it has been known to grow twenty feet in a week. The foliage is large and tropical. It is entirely hardy. Everyone has trouble in getting nursery-grown plants of this to grow. We have prepared and offer pot grown plants, the kind that have the crown to the plant and ball of earth to the roots, and you try to stop them growing and see if you don't run into a snag. This is proving a great forage plant in the south. All kinds of stock prefer it to hay or other common feed. Try it. 25 cents each, three for 65 cents, twelve for $2.50.

HEDGE PLANTS

We Here Name the Most Suitable Plants for Hedges Berberis—Barberry

THUNBERGII (From Japan.)—A pretty species of dwarf habit. Small foliage changing to a beautiful coppery-red in autumn. This trimmer was designed and built to meet and satisfy the demand of thousands, who have hedge of some sort around their homes.

The SIMPLICITY is the only trimmer successfully demonstrated and proved to be a wonderful advancement over the old-style hedge shear.

No experience necessary to cut a first-class job. Think of it! With each complete movement of your hands you actually save seventeen blistering tiresome "snips" or "whacks" the old hedge shear wav.

The trimmer is to be used only for cutting the new growth. Do not use it for cutting second year growths or pruning.

With its perfect balance it really seems to work almost automatically; for, besides SIMPLICITY'S two-pound weight and twelve-inch width, it has 19 big, safe, keen teeth, cutting cleanly both when opening and closing.

And that's just why the SIMPLICITY HEDGE TRIM-MER is making thousands of new friends at this season of home hedge-trimming.

SIMPLICITY'S are made of the Finest High Grade Carbon Steel and will give you long service and satisfaction. Price, $5.00.

No. 2—For pruning back old growth and trimming new

This implement is the acme of perfection, and far in advance of the present day Pruner or Lopping Shears.

To anyone who has ever pruned or lopped hedge or shrubbery with the old-fashioned pruner or lopping shears, there is no need to point out the revolution that came with this great invention. The SIMPLICITY PRUNER or LOP-PING TRIMMER.

With the SIMPLICITY you can actually do as much work in one hour as you formerly did in four hours with the oldstyle pruner or lopping shears.

SIMPLICITY cuts both opening and closing. Think of it! What a time and energy saver this is, with each complete movement of your hands you save 29 jolting, blistering and tiresome whacks the old pruner or lopping shear way.

It seems to work almost automatically and you must actually try it to realize how easy it works.

With its perfect balance and only three pound weight, besides SIMPLICITY'S sixteen inch width, it has 31 big safe, keen fluted teeth, cutting cleanly both when opening and

The SIMPLICITY PRUNER TRIMMER can also be used for trimming with excellent results. Many home users have chosen it to do all their trimming.
